Elections

(1) Laws and Policies

Can Congress :

1. Require all elective officials to be high school graduates,
2. Provide for 2 Vice-Mayors (1 elected and 1 appointed), and
3. Provide for a Party-List system in electing members of Local Legislative Councils?

1. No, for National Elective Positions.
2. Yes, for local elective positions:
 - The 1987 Constitution does not prescribe the structure, qualifications and manner by which LGU officials are selected.
 - Congress has legislative control over the structure and qualifications of LGU officials.

(1) Laws and Policies

1. Can Congress postpone the 2025 National, Regional and Local Elections?

2. Can COMELEC reschedule the elections in the whole country?

1. Yes, provided:
 - Valid reason
 - Not impair suffrage/regularity of elections
2. No, unless:
 - Congress delegates this authority
 - For now, only in a political subdivision

(2) COMELEC

Can COMELEC, through a Resolution, provide for:

1. Mix of automated and manual systems in certain provinces (Hybrid)?
2. Registration of social media accounts and penalize violators?
3. Continuance in office of appointive officials who are party-list nominees?

Principle of Subordinate Legislation

1. No, since Automated Election Law requires automation of elections nationwide.
2. Yes, Fair Election Act covers all other forms of media and violation of FEA IRR is considered an election offense.
3. No, since appointive officials deemed resigned. (SC TRO)

(2) COMELEC

Can COMELEC:

1. Augment items from its savings?
 2. Resolve all Election Protests?
 3. Choose an Automated System without ballots?
 4. Division adjudicate all cases at the first instance?
1. Fiscal Autonomy
 2. Jurisdiction depends on elective position (PET, SET, HRET, COMELEC, RTC and MTC)
 3. Automated Election Law empowers COMELEC to choose (Paper-based or Direct Recording – contingent rule)
 4. Depends if Quasi-Judicial (Division) or Administrative (En Banc)

(2) COMELEC

Quasi-Judicial

- Disqualification cases
- Election Protest
- Pre-Proclamation Controversy
- Annulment of Proclamation

Administrative

- Canvassing for Senators and Party-List
- Failure of Elections
- Postponement of Elections
- Filing of Information for an Election Offense
- Annulment of Book of Voters
- Accreditation of Party-List Organizations

(2) COMELEC

1. Can a decision of the COMELEC Division be elevated to the Supreme Court without filing an MR with En banc?
2. Can a taxpayer question a COMELEC Resolution with the Supreme Court without filing an MR with the En banc?

General Rule: Exhaust Administrative Remedies unless (bypass COMELEC En banc):

1. Rule (Quasi-Legislation)
2. Urgency
3. Constitutional Issue
4. Transcendental Concern
5. Pure Question of Law
6. Strong Public Interest

(3) Suffrage and Voters

True or False

1. One must be qualified at the time one applies for registration.
 2. A person born in X and studies in Y, can be registered voter in X or Y.
 3. A voter who failed to vote in 2 previous elections cannot vote.
1. False, since reckoning point is election day (right to register vs. right to vote)
 2. True, since resident of both places (can only be a voter in one place).
 3. False, since voter can apply for reactivation.

(3) Suffrage and Voters

True or False

4. A voter can question the qualification of another voter only up to January 27, 2025.
5. COMELEC can annul 10 Book of Voters of a city.
6. A Pollwatcher can challenge a voter for selling his/her vote.
4. False, deadline for filing Exclusion Petitions is February 1, 2025.
5. True, for irregularities on preparation of Book of Voters (not on Qs or DQs).
6. True, on ground of Illegal Voter (but Voter can vote if takes an oath)

(4) Elective Officials

1. Do our laws require that all elective officials must be natural-born citizens?
 2. Is a Mayor deemed resigned if he/she files a CoC for Representative?
 3. Can a Male be a Party-List Representative of a Women's Party that obtains 1.7% of 2nd votes?
1. No, only for those holding national positions (not local).
 2. No, Mayor continues in office up to 12:00 n.n., June 30, 2025.
 3. Yes, for as long as he is an advocate of women's rights and a member of that party. Yes, provided not all seats are filled-up.

(4) Term of Local Elective Officials
